

Kristen W. Poff

Kristen practices in the areas of estate planning and wealth transfer, estate and trust administration, business transactions, and tax law. Kristen counsels both individual and corporate trustees in all matters related to trusts and estates, including trust modifications, terminations, mergers, decantings, nonjudicial settlement agreements, and trust situs changes.

In law school, Kristen was senior staff for the Delaware Journal of Corporate Law, and she served as a judicial extern to the Honorable Myron T. Steele, then-Chief Justice of the Delaware Supreme Court.

Prior to joining the firm, Kristen began her career working in the Structured Finance and Alternative Entities group at Potter Anderson and Corroon LLP. She also worked in the Trust and Estates Department of Gordon, Fournaris & Mammarella, P.A.

Kristen is admitted to practice in the state of Delaware and the U.S. District Court for the District of Delaware.

She received her B.S. from Wake Forest University, her MBA from the University of Delaware and her J.D. from Widener University School of Law.
